Crossing over of Pakistani Trained Evtremists to Indian side

1221. SHRI B. SATYANARAYAN REDDY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news report that five hundred Pakistani trained extremists had crossed over to India between August 18 and 25, 1985;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the extremists have been armed by Pakistan with stenguns and mausers;

(c) what steps Government have taken to seal the border with Pakistan to check not only further infiltration but also escape of the extremists to Pakistan after they commit crime in India; and

(d) what steps have been taken to apprehend the extremists who have already crossed over to India?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL SECURITY (SHRI ARUN NEHRU): (a) and (b) Government have no reports that 500 Pakistani trained extremists had infiltrated into India during that period. However, interrogation of extremists so far arrested revealed that Pakistan has been arming them with stenguns, revolvers and grenades.

(c) and (d) Constant vigil is maintained by BSF and other security forces. Joint ambushes, raids and patrols with local police and other preventive agencies are organised by the BSF. Additional companies have been deployed by the BSF. Observation towers have been erected to Watch movement of exfiltrations' enfiltrations. Screening and cambing operations as also the requisite follow-up action are being taken by the concerned agencies to locate and apprehend the extremists who might have already crossed over to India.

Police Commissioner System in Delhi

1222. PROF. C. LAKSHMANNA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) when was the Police Commissioner System introduced in the Capital: and

(b) whether Government have studied the benefits of the System?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF STATES (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) The Police Commissioner System was introduced in the Union Territory of Delhi with effect from 1st July, 1978.

(b) While recommending the introduction of the Commissioner of Police System in Delhi, the Delhi Police Commission (Khosla Commission) had noted that this system was in vogue in a number of major cities in the country. The National Police Commission, after detailed examination of the pros and cons of the various systems operating in the country, has also recommended the introduction of the Commissioner of Police system in all cities having a population of five lakhs and above.
